

G5 ENTERTAINMENT AB

G5's games are coming to Apple's iPad

2010-01-28 PRESS RELEASE

G5 Entertainment will bring its games to Apple's iPad portable device, announced by Apple on January 27th. The portfolio of G5's 9 most popular casual games already available for the iPhone will be brought to the iPad, where players will enjoy higher resolution graphics. Company's future casual game releases will also support the iPad.

More information about G5 Entertainment can be found at: www.g5e.se

For additional information please contact: investor@g5e.se

Apple, the Apple logo, and iPod are trademarks of Apple Inc., registered in the U.S. and other countries.
iPhone is a trademark of Apple Inc.

About G5 Entertainment AB (publ)

G5 Entertainment AB is a developer and publisher of high quality downloadable games for mobile, PC, home and portable consoles. G5 started as the world's leading mobile game development studio, developing games based on popular licenses for Electronic Arts, Disney, and THQ. G5 is now developing and publishing its own games that are family-friendly, easy to learn, and targeted at the widest audience of experienced and novice players. G5 owns a number of popular PC and iPhone game franchises like Supermarket Mania, Stand O' Food and Mahjongg Artifacts, and invests in creating new games and bringing company's established franchises to new game platforms. G5's portfolio of games consists of over 20 games across different platforms. G5's games target the growing audience of over 200 million casual game players on PC, over 40 million Apple iPhone devices sold to date, and over 52 million Sony PSP devices sold to date, and will expand further as G5 brings its franchises to new platforms.

G5 also develops and licenses user interface design solution for wireless operators and handset manufacturers – MIDS. MIDS is licensed by Russia's leading wireless operator Vimpel Communications (Beeline).